Miss Chapman | Third Grade | Painted Rock Academy

Next Week

Math

For Saxon Math, we will have a review on Tuesday and a test on Wednesday. Please be sure to review over the math practice test at home to ensure good grades on the test.

We will learn how to identify, name and draw polygons. We will begin to learn how to find the area of different polygons.

Please be sure to check math homework at home for completion and accuracy.

Students should know how to divide by 2, 3, 4, and 5!

Reading

We will continue reading the biography about George Washington Carver. We will be reviewing all of the components of a biography and answering questions about his life. We will review the difference of facts and opinions. The study guide for the quiz will go home on Monday. Students are encouraged to look over the study guide nightly. The test will be the following week.
